ABOUT THE COURSE

Successful completion of this course results in an ABC certificate and is accepted as Continuing Education towards renewal of a California electrical license.

Working with Inspectors teaches electricians how to work effectively with electrical inspectors by providing information about why and how inspectors do their work, and what electricians need to know to be able to communicate with inspectors.

The course then provides five scenarios in which students must apply their new skills and knowledge to analyze and negotiate solutions for red tags on commercial and residential electrical installations.

This course concludes with an exam to ensure students have retained their new knowledge and skills.
