Overview

Join us for a focused, one-hour briefing on the latest updates impacting Prevailing Wage requirements and Skilled and Trained Workforce (STW) compliance in California. With several new legislative changes taking effect — including the significant additions under AB 889 — it's essential for contractors, subcontractors, and compliance professionals to understand what's changing and how it affects bidding, reporting, and day-to-day workforce management.

This webinar will break down the new requirements in clear, practical terms and outline what your company needs to do to remain compliant in 2026 and beyond.
